TESTIMONIAL

We take great pleasure in recommending Kualitem for instant and meticulous testing services. Running short in timelines, while launching a healthcare portal for General Electric, Kualitem helped BBDO in testing the application to make it absolutely defect free. They setup a thorough process of regression to ensure that the portal behaves as intended from every aspect, be it functionality, browser compatibility or usability. The best thing about their service was their response time and valuable suggestions that helped in quick fixes of the issues. BBDO is a worldwide advertising agency network headquartered in New York.
